THAT WONDERFUL YEAR

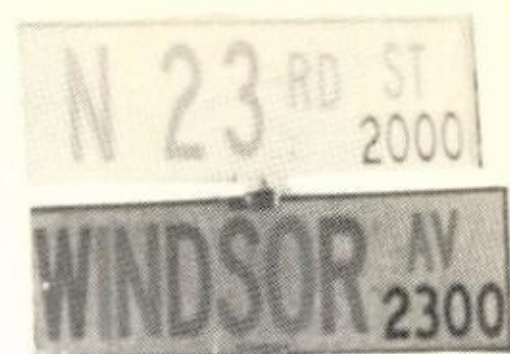

sister m. jarlath

We, the staff, are proud to dedicate the 1961 Chi-Rhoan to you, Sister Mary Jarlath. Your hard work as sponsor of previous yearbooks has served as an inspiration and guide for us. Little did we realize five years ago when you inaugurated the first Chi-Rhoan, that it would come to hold such a cherished place in the hearts of all RHS students.

The measure of your influence cannot be weighed. We only hope that this Chi-Rhoan will serve as a worthy tribute to you.

foreword

Twenty-third and Windsor is a memorable corner for the students of RHS. Each morning four hundred students enter the doors of Reicher High where they are given the opportunity of developing academically, socially, and spiritually.

Our lives not only evolve around the school but extend into the community as well.

Our lives become more meaningful because we learn qualities of understanding, leadership, and friendliness.

At the end of the year, we all recall the events that have made the previous school year so memorable. For some of us, this Chi-Rhoan presents a picture of the last of our high school days. For others, it is a symbol of the initial period of school life, but for all of us it is symbolic of the knowledge we have gained, the impressions we have formed and the fun we have enjoyed during 1961.

How could we ever forget all the hours we spent with . . .

Seniors have fun with English! Charles Tusa and Frank Fritch from CANTERBURY TALES!

Test time means cramming!

studies

Those long hours of experimentation
when new horizons opened up for us.
Night after night we studied diligently,
but who can ever forget cramming for excitement!

. . . Remember the last two minutes of the Reicher-Mexia game when Bobby Landon "bulled" his way for 19 yards and the Cougar victory . . . remember Jeff Farmer sinking 42 points in the La Vega game . . . remember the spirit of the cheerleaders and how they conveyed that spirit to the students . . . remember the Powder Puff game . . . remember? How could we forget? Excitement was a part of the every day cycle at RHS, but the days we really waited for were the . . .

In a contest between the Varsity cheerleaders and these junior boys, the girls would really have to work to win over this enthusiastic bunch.

How would you vote?

The junior cheerleaders for the girls' Power-puff football game were: Barney Smith, F. L. Matthews, Nicky Lewis, Bill Ficke and Kenneth Maciula.

Watch out for flying candy from the Spanish II's piñata party!

Pretty neat, eh, Coach? Karen Johnson was chosen Sweetheart of the Connally and Hubbard tournaments not only for charm, but scholastic ability as well.

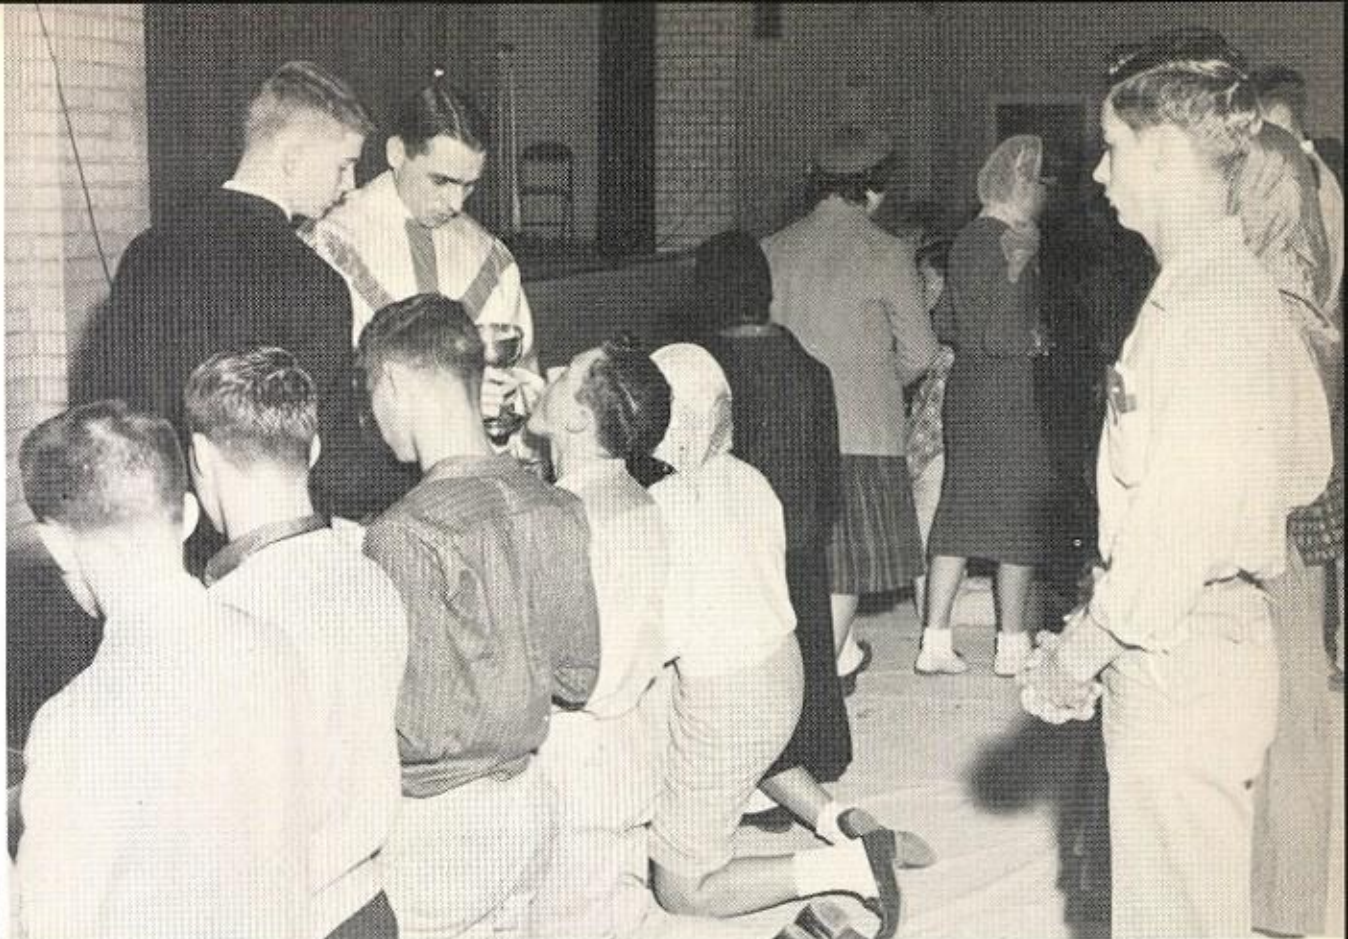

special events . . .

. . . days and nights which will ever hold a place of honor in our thoughts of RHS. Remember the Football Banquet, and the wise and humorous words of "Catfish" Smith . . . Remember the peaceful solemnity of the retreat . . . The gratifying applause accepted by the choruses after the long hours of preparation for the Christmas concert and the solemn faces of the seniors that reflect their realization of the seriousness of the long-awaited Ring Day. These events were outstanding and complemented the many hours . . .

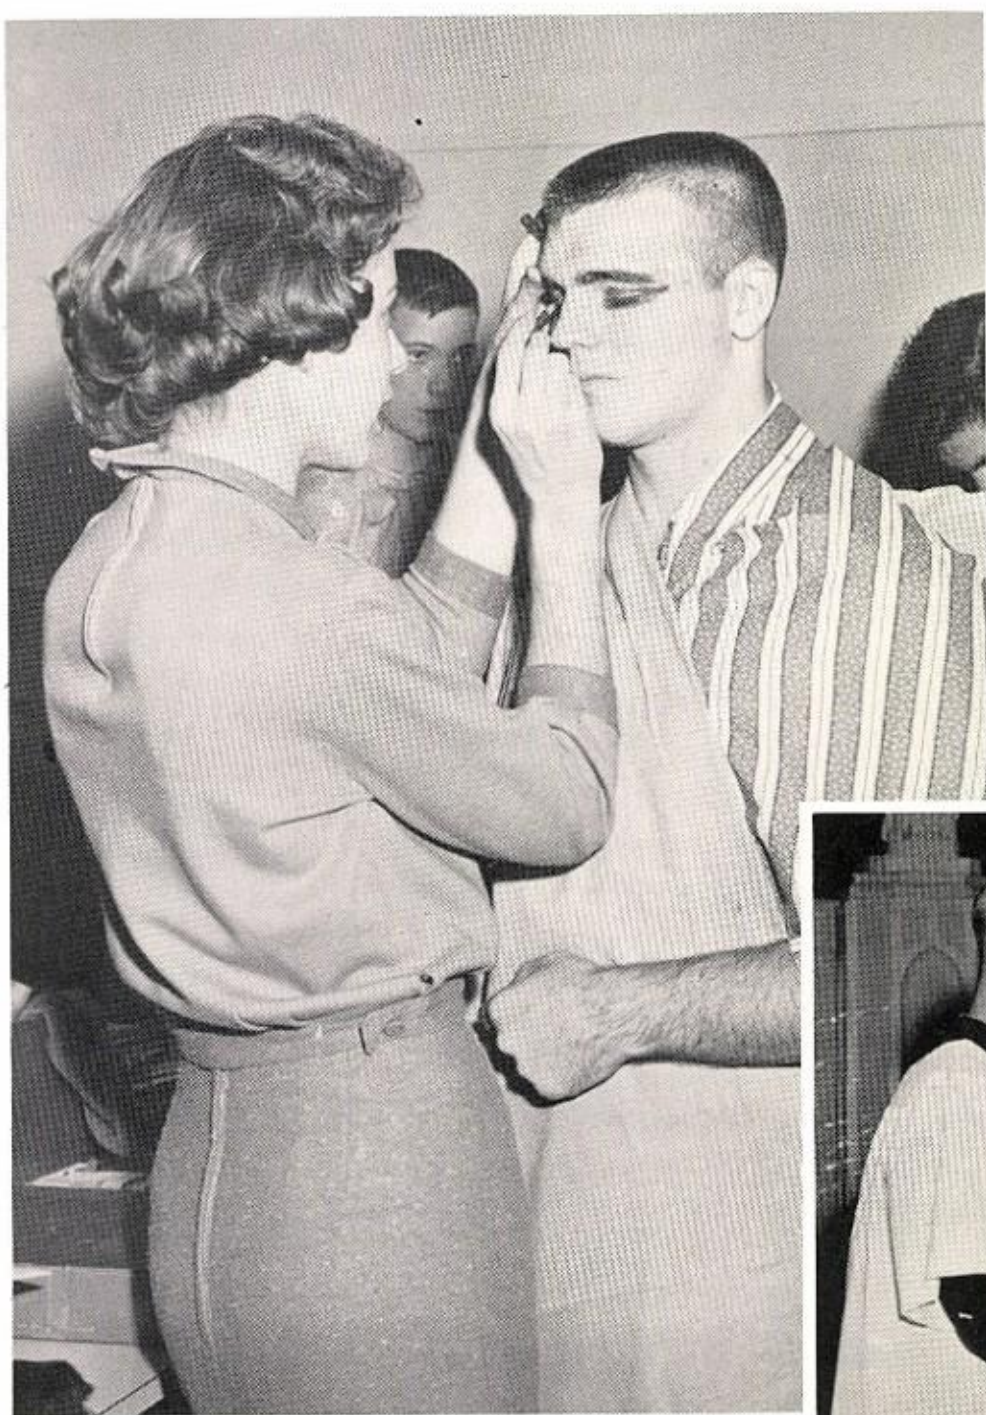

The beam on Mrs. Smith's face shows her happiness over receiving this RHS blanket from the Booster's Club.

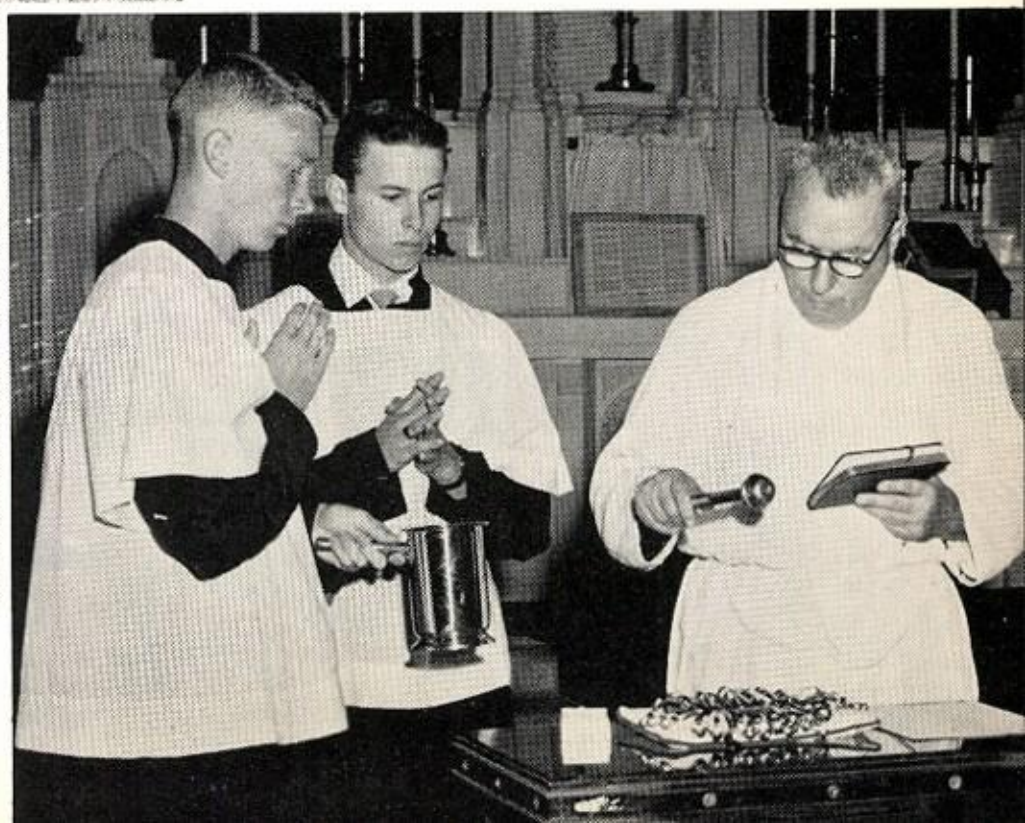

Retreat is a special time of the year for each of us. Here Father V. Goertz gives communion to one of the students.

Gail, are you enjoying yourself???

Bobby Landon receives his last minute make-up for the Christmas Cantata, willingly???

The blessing of the Senior rings by Monsignor signifies the honor and solemnity of the Ring Day ceremony.

. . . Remember the fun and the many laughs we had from the exciting games of horse-shoes, and ah - the pause that refreshes was certainly welcome after our sweltering afternoon classes. Lifting weights is the boys pastime, but all and all the odds and ends and the the little incidentals help make our year worth remembering . . .

Red Cross works to help others through toy and magazine drives.

We were honored to have Bishop Louis J. Reicher dedicate our new football stadium.

Tuition comes once a month. For these R. H. S. seniors it's a trip to see Mrs. Langlotz.

Messrs. Engelke, Nitzschke, and Jones discuss plans for the coming week's menu during a coffee break.

The players aren't the only ones who work at the basketball games. Messrs. Wilkins, Martin, Ficke, and Landon prepared refreshments for our hungry fans.

PARISH SCHOOL

Twelve years ago we started here,
A long way we have come.
With pleasure we recall each year
And the many things we've done.

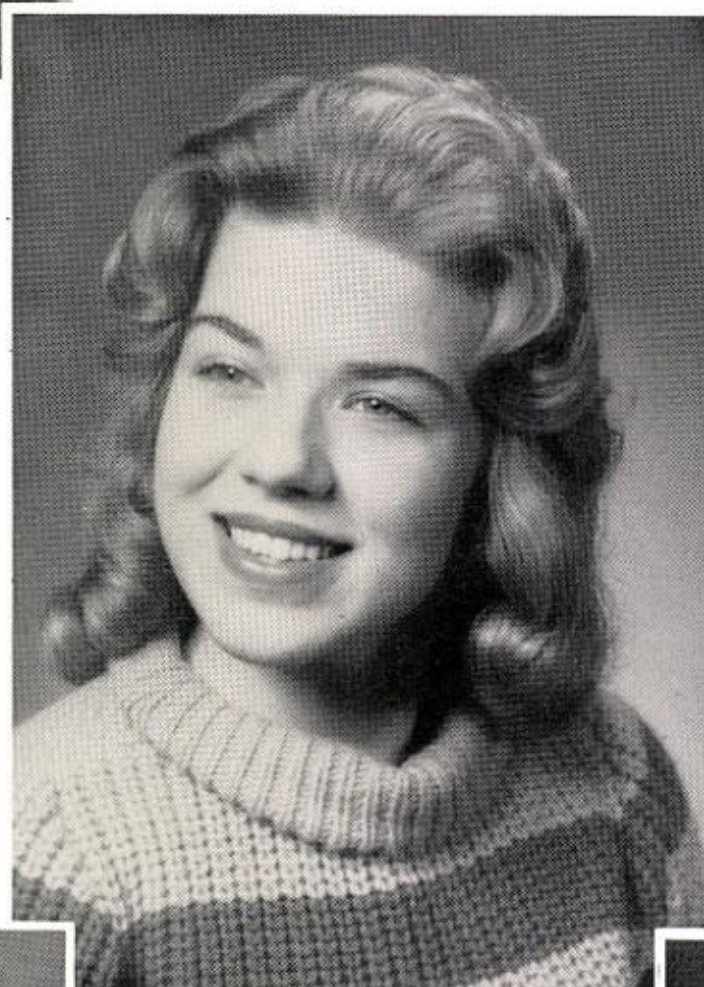

So as the final days draw near,
We think of all the fun,
The gladness, joys and the tears
Of nineteen sixty-one.

cougar chronicle

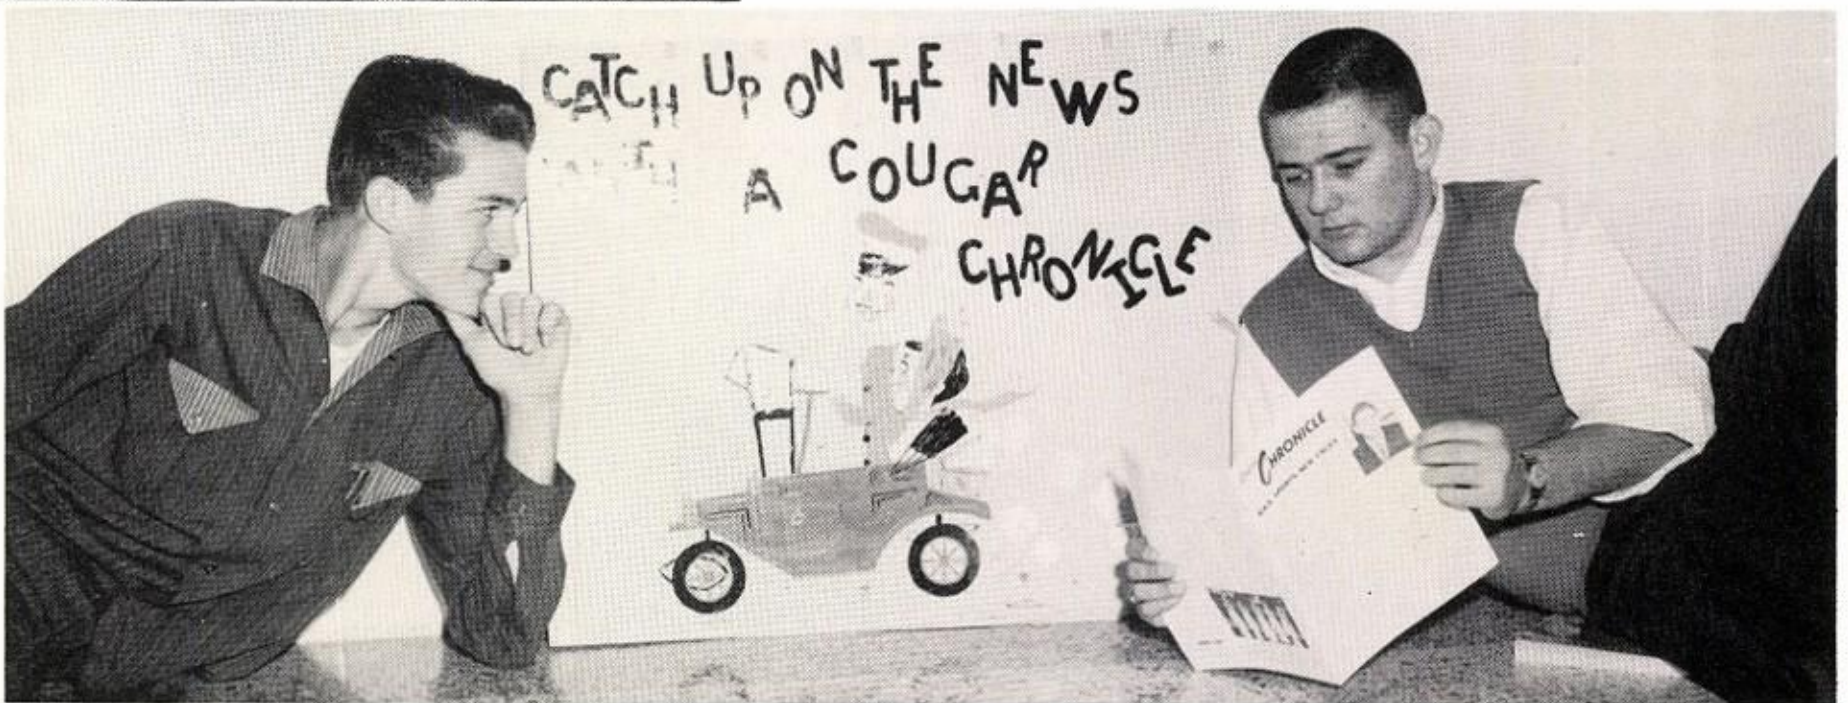

"EXTRA! EXTRA" READ ALL ABOUT IT!"

John Mashek, editor of the COUGAR CHRONICLE and Pat Beckham, business manager, saw to it that we were well-informed on the comings and goings of our school.

staff

Sports Editor, Joe Bradley, reported the victories and the losses while Curtis Lanham brought eye appeal to the paper with his assorted drawings.

Of course, what's a paper without its "newsboys"?

Judy Hunke and Karen Johnson were busy selling the CHRONICLE every chance they got. Tom Myers is the lucky one here.

All in all, the entire staff helped to bring the important happenings of our WONDERFUL YEAR to print.

REICHER STADIUM

sports

Bobby "the Bull" Landon plows through the Mexia line for the first touchdown.

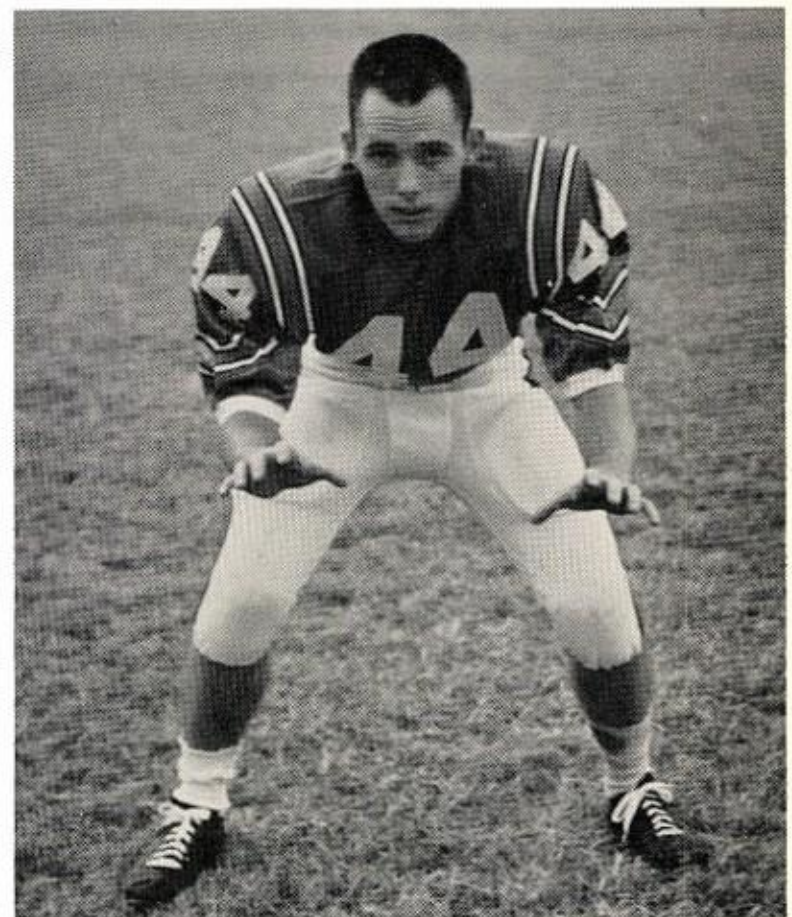

REICHER 26 - MEXIA 22

Fitting for the inaugural game at Reicher's new stadium was one of the most exciting games of the year. Riding the arm of Tommy Husbands, the running of Bobby Landon and Johnny Martin, and the defensive skills of Joe Bradley and Gene Leuschner, the Cougars came from behind to snuff out Mexia and their hopes of an upset.

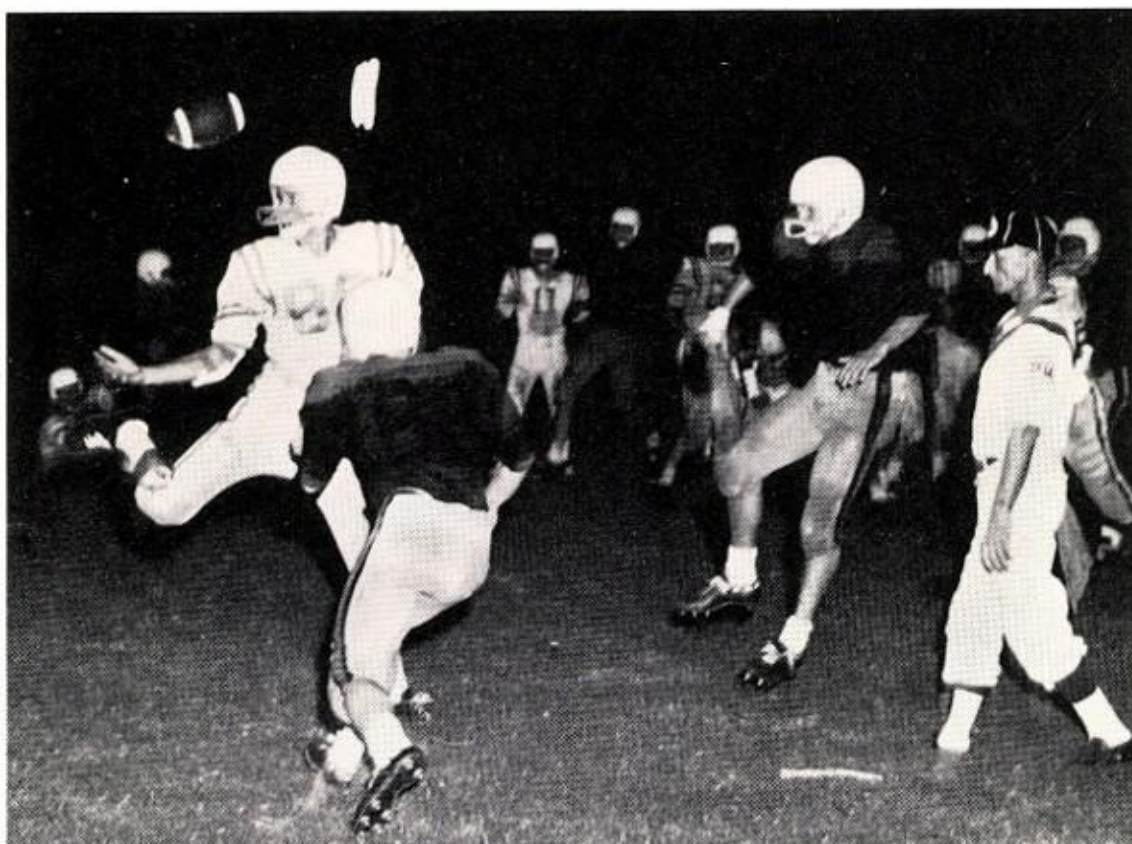

REICHER 6 - KIRWIN 20

The Cougars ran into the "big Red" of the coast and were defeated by the bigger 4AAAA team. Kirwin, runner-up to state champ Jesuit, capitalized on the breaks to score three touchdowns the first half; but Reicher's feared passing attack with Tommy Husbands completing 19 passes, ten of them to end Jeff Farmer, came back to score in the second half.

Pat Stoltze, the spark plug of the Cougar's defense, played an outstanding game against Marlin.

It doesn't look it; but Jeff Farmer picks up a first down on a pass from Tommy Husbands.

REICHER 13 - MARLIN 0

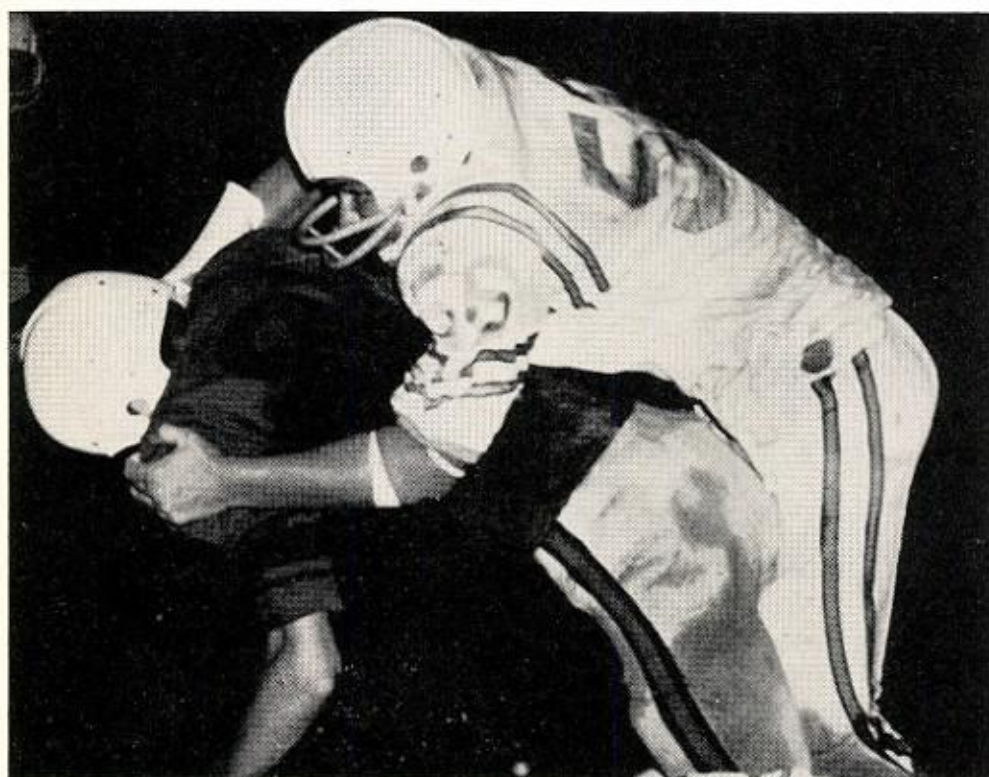

Playing their best game of the year, the Cougar line outcharged the Bulldogs; and Johnny Martin out-ran them as he scored the first TD on a 55 yd. run. Pat Stoltze led the great defensive effort along with Bill Williams, Jeff Farmer, Gene Leuschner, Joe Bradley, Bob Landon, and Robert Donellen.

REICHER 14 - LA VEGA 36

The Cougars caught hold of a hot pirate early in the game and could never catch up. At the start of the second-half Johnny Martin electrified the crowd with an 89 yard kick-off return. Throwing great blocks to clear the way were Joe Bradley, Jeff Farmer, Bob Landon, Bill Lamb and Frank Fritch.

Charles Tusa catches the runner from behind as the rest of the players look on.

"Rid'em Cowboy," as Joe Bradley bulldogs a runner to the ground.

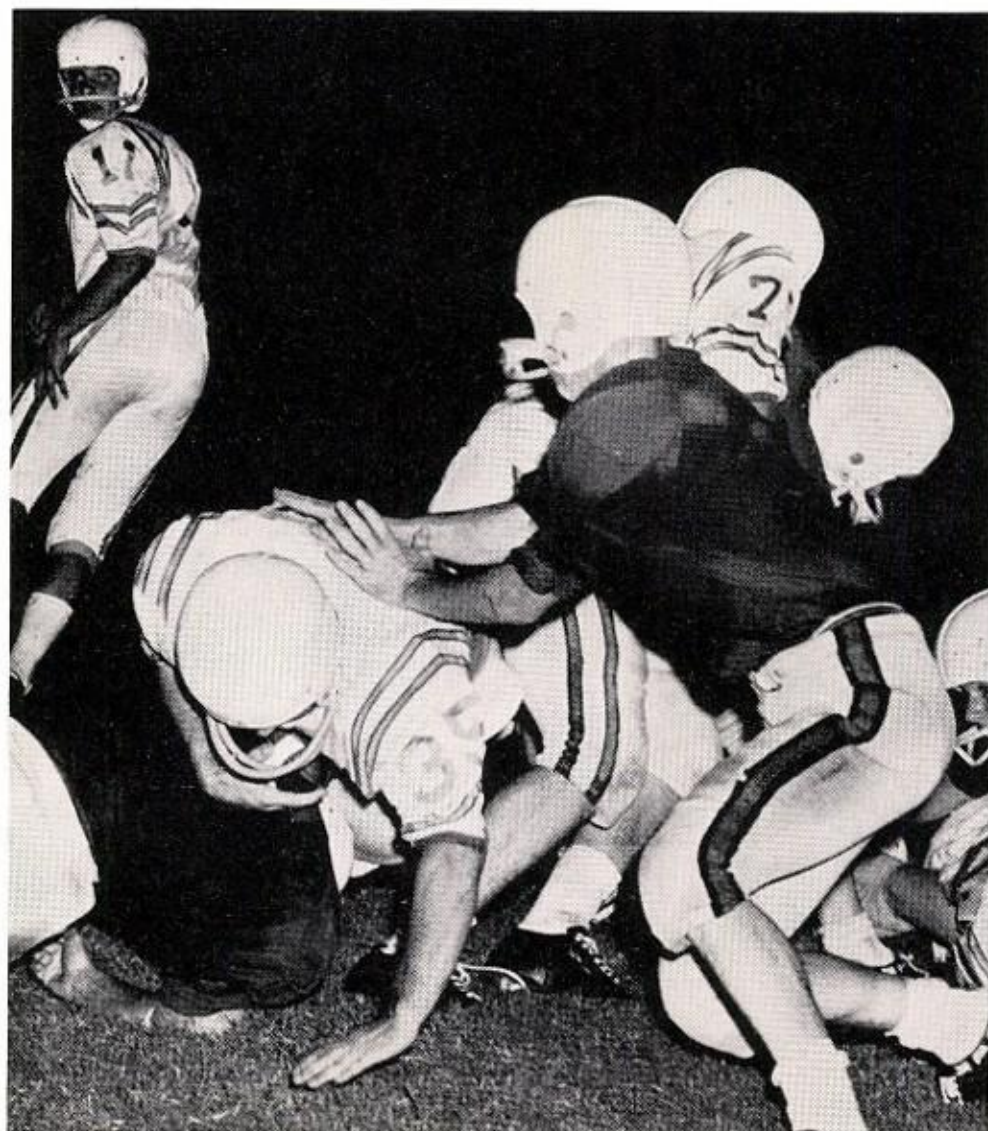

REICHER 15 - HEARNE 28

Traveling to Hearne, the Cougars could never jell their pass defense against Hearne's great passer. However, the Cougar offense showed some spark on the running of Bobby Landon and Johnny Martin, the passing of Tommy Husbands, and the catching of Jeff Farmer.

REICHER 32 - ST. MARKS 8

On the third play of the game, Johnny Martin recovered a fumbled pitchout and traveled 60 yards for the back-breaking TD. Getting back on the winning side, the Cougars combined its explosive offense and its stifling defense to easily conquer St. Marks. Robert Donnelen, and Joe Bradley were two of the defensive stars.

Bob Landon proves that big things can go through little holes, as he lunges through the Mexia line.

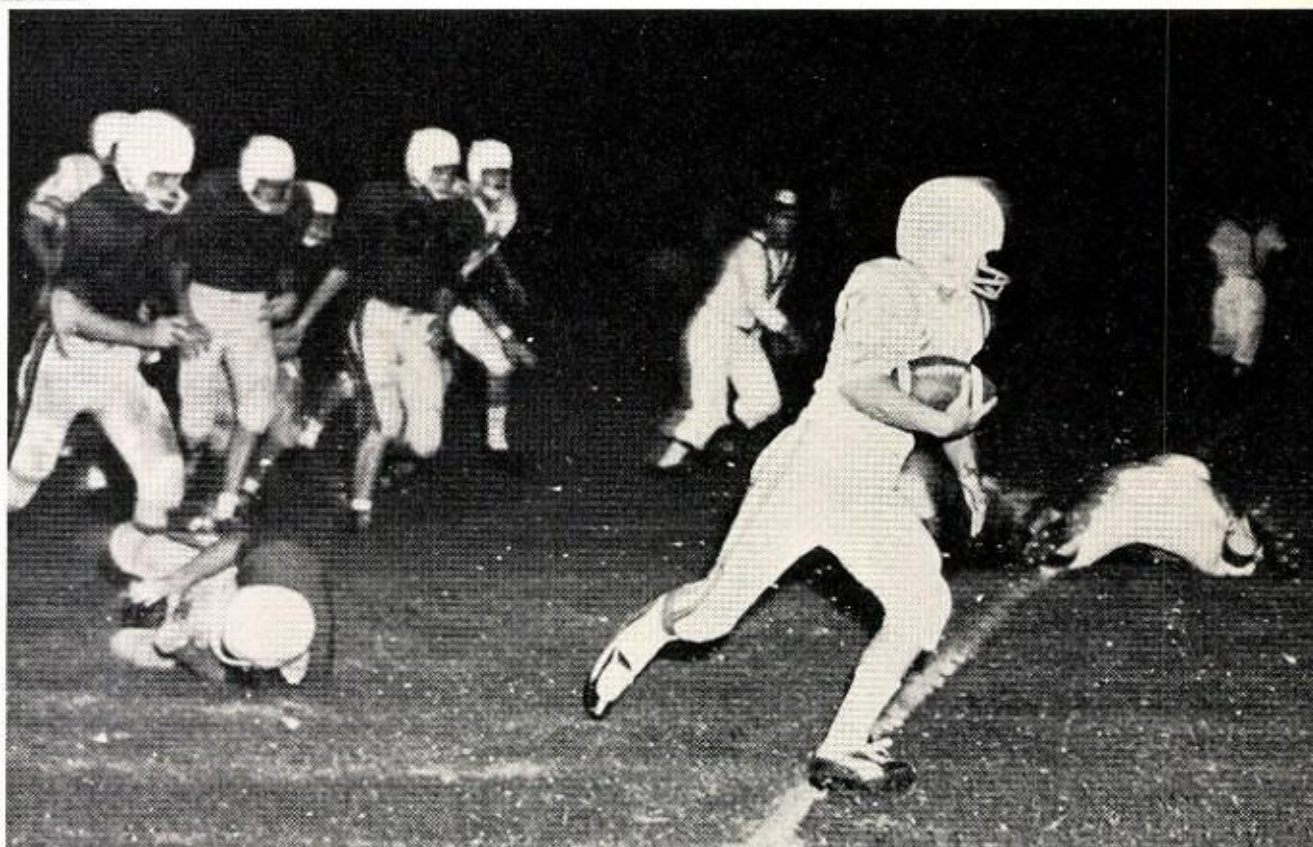

Martin and Bradley haul down a Mexia runner as the half ends.

REICHER 42 - CENTRAL CATHOLIC 20

Playing his best game of the year, Johnny Martin broke through the large Central line for three long TD runs. The whole Cougar offense was brilliant as it moved the ball at will.

Somebody slow him down!

Come on, Coach, let me in!

REICHER 6 - GATESVILLE 24

The Reicher Cougars invaded the nest of the Gatesville Hornets and succumbed to one of the states most powerful 2AA teams. Although the Cougars out-ran, out-passed, and out-played them, the Hornets capitalized on the second-half breaks to pull out the win. Cougar standouts were Joe Bradley, Bobby Landon, Tommy Husbands, and Jeff Farmer.

REICHER 20 - JESUIT 32

The Cougars went to Dallas with title hopes, but had them smashed by the bigger Rangers. Outweighed by 20 lb. per man, the Cougars played brilliantly, but just couldn't match the Rangers powerful running attack. For playing an outstanding game against Jesuit and through the year, Johnny Martin was selected to the J. C. I. C. all-state team while Jeff Farmer was given honorable mention honors.

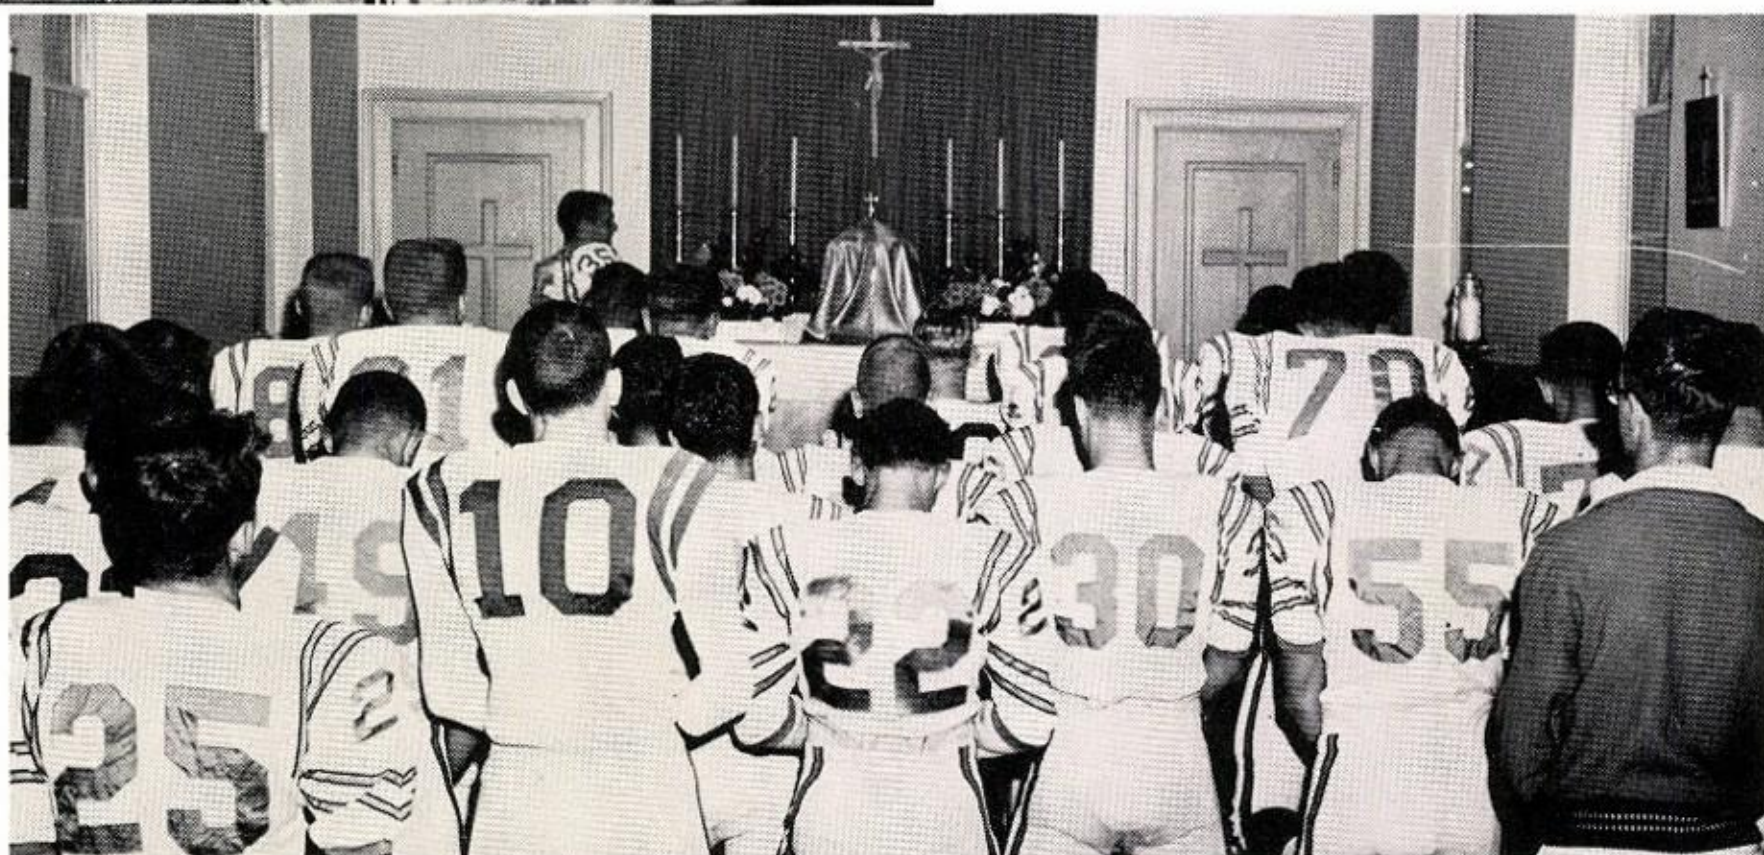

REICHER 49 - LANERI 16

Playing its last game of the year and its homecoming game, the Cougars devastated the Ravens with a powerful offense both on the ground and in the air. Johnny Marint, Bobby Landon, Tommy Husbands, Joe Bradley, Bill Williams, and Jeff Farmer turned in sturdy performances.

We salute our managers - Ed Jarvis, Frank O'Hagan, John Broadway and Dean Carrigan.

Sister Magdala presents Gregory George, Mike McKee, and Gilbert Hernandez "letter sweater" for their fine performances on the gridiron.

To entertain the fans in the stands, our seventh grade boys play "Biddy Ball" under the direction of Charles Rhodes and Bill Hearon, seniors.

Molly Maloy, Renee Barragar, Kathleen Matus, Christine Green and Carol Broadway, Junior High Cheerleaders, certainly deserved their sweaters given them by Mr. Vasek for raising the morale of the team.

"Practice makes perfect!"

19 JUNIOR

Also our seventh and eighth grades took an active part in the Christmas Cantata. These boys, Ronald Veselka, Douglas Calmelet, Mike Smajstrla, Michael Switzer, Jeff Kearney, Andy Restivo, and John Capetillo, formed a Christmas tree.

"Citizenship starts when you're young." These seventh grade officers, Donna Gradel, Rebecca Chavez, Mary Ann Girard, Donna Langlotz, Steven Prados, Thomas Scanio, John Tusa, and Jeff Kearney, take their duties and responsibilities as leaders of their classes seriously.

"Be proud! Be a Scout!" Thomas Scanio, Raymond Sulak, Eugene O'Gorman, Pamela Jones, Patti Aarons, and Francis Miller enjoy their extracurricular activities.

"After a hard day's work, a bike ride peps you up!" these Junior High boys agree.

Sharon Pruitt was the proud winner of the Knights of Columbus essay contest.

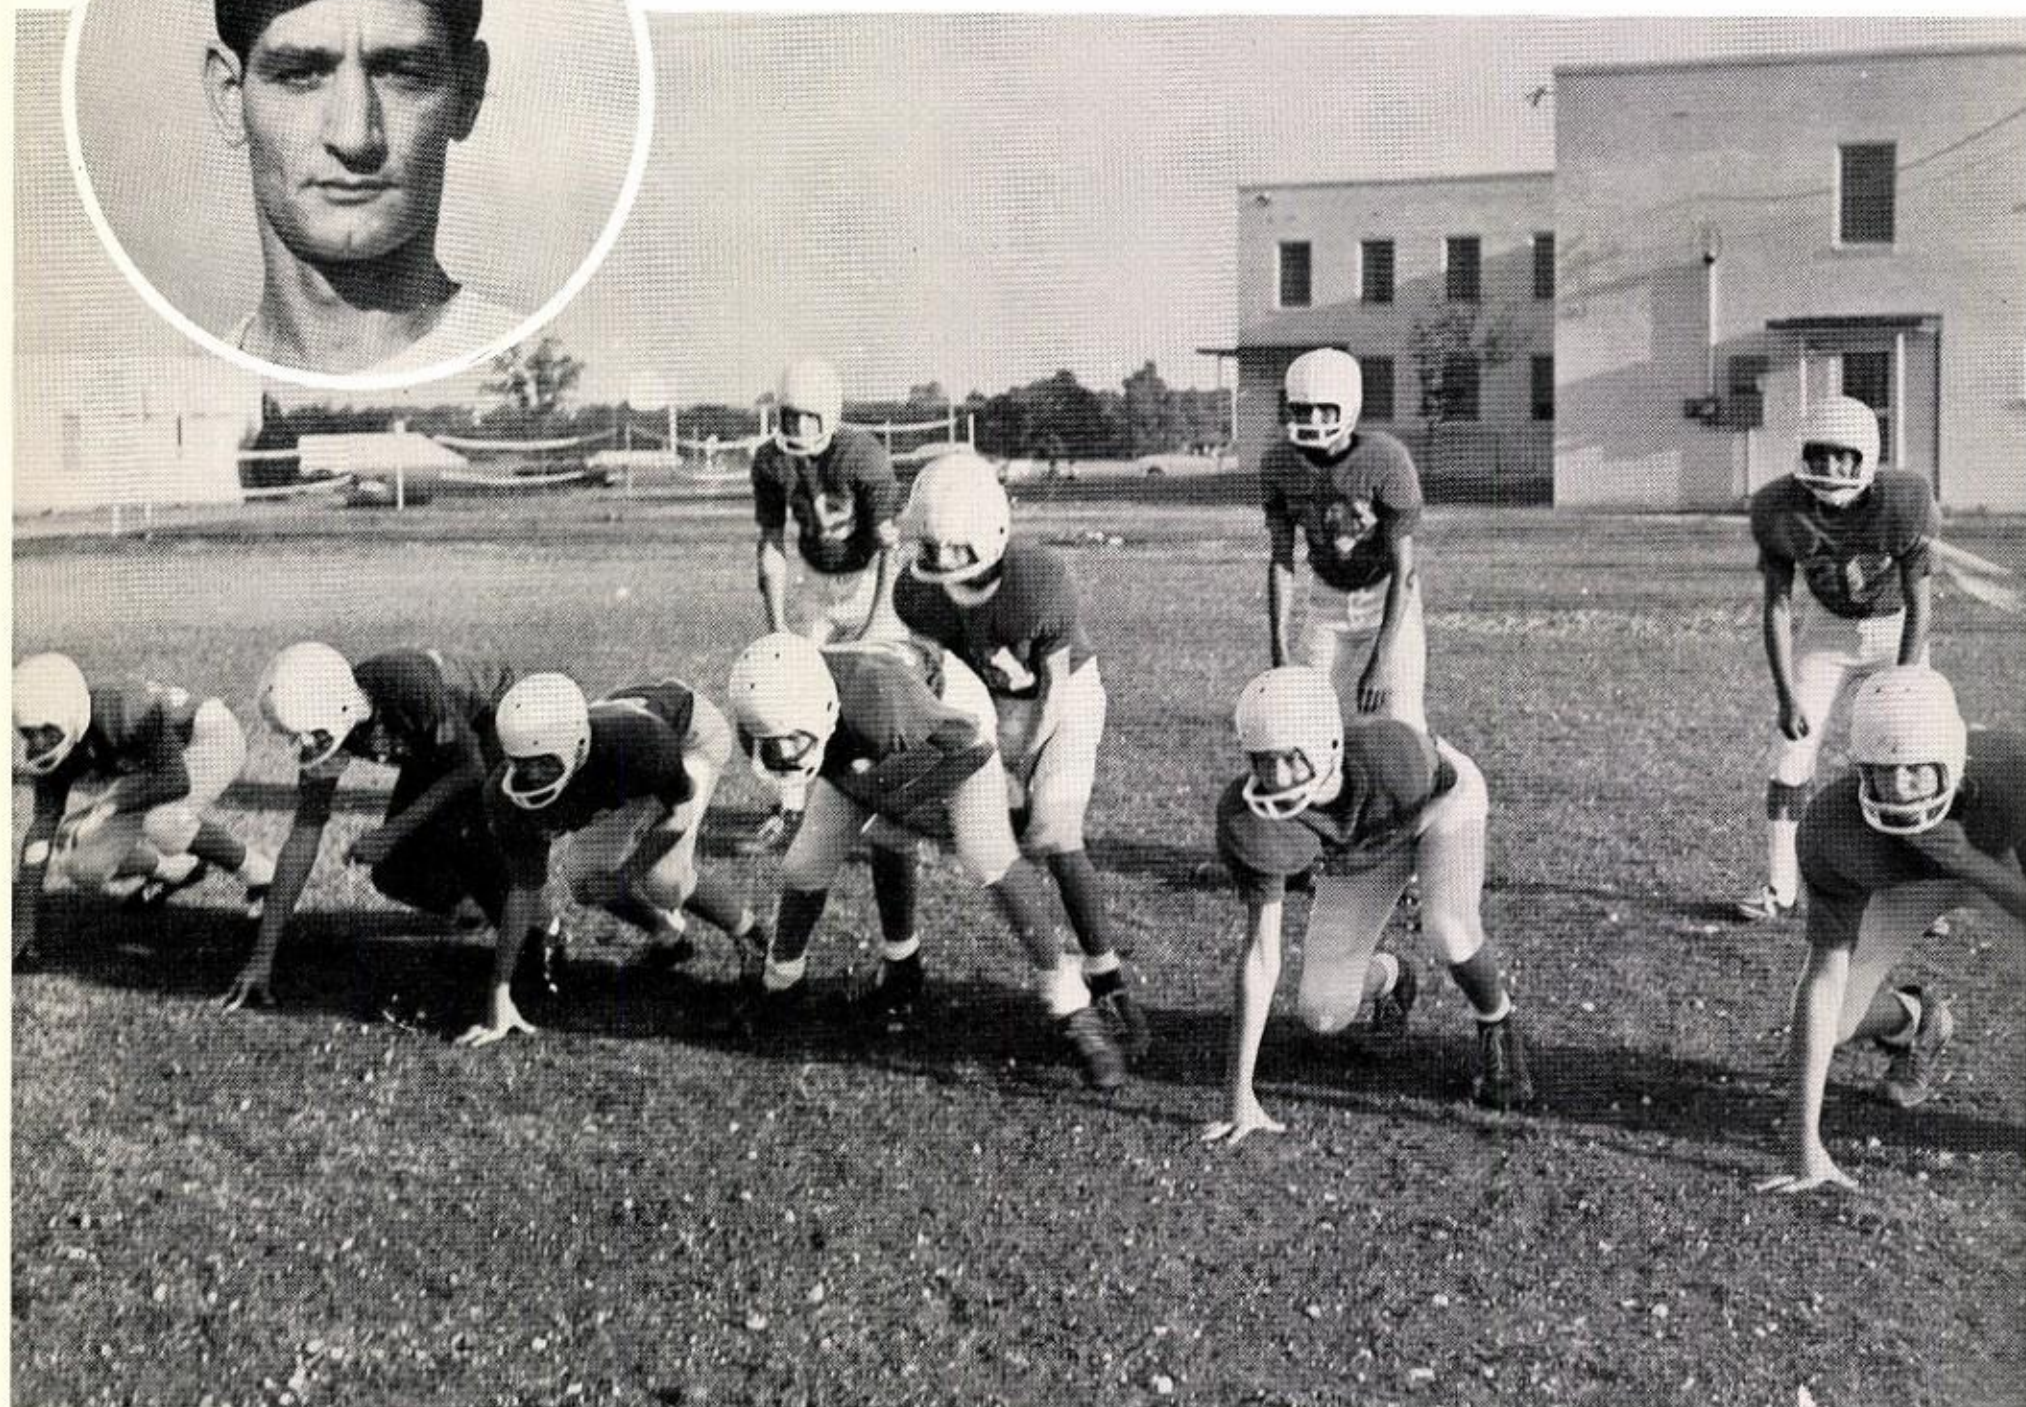

For fun and relaxation, try volleyball, girls!

Coach Greco does a mighty fine job of coaching the Junior High football squad.

Try to break through this tough wall!

Future Cougars prepare for tough game.
